Can you summarise this paragraph for my CV in one sentence?
A group of employers in the tech industry gave some presentations and introduced students to the different roles in their companies and how they could get involved. It developed my networking skills and also gave me insight into how the tech industry works. Tech professionals came in, giving the opportunity to network, I also followed them on LinkedIn and was introduced to their various social accounts.

Copilot

Sure! Here is a concise summary for your CV:

"Enhanced networking skills and gained insights into the tech industry through presentations and networking opportunities with tech professionals, including LinkedIn and social media engagement."

How's that? Let me know if it works for you!

You

Can you reduce it further to at least half it's current length?

Copilot

Sure! Here's a more concise version:

"Enhanced networking skills and gained tech industry insights through presentations and professional networking."

Hope this meets your needs!
